

Goods in transit insurance

Whilst in transit, goods are subject to numerous risks which may lead to financial losses. Our Goods in Transit insurance policy offers compensation for damage or loss of transit goods due to mishandling, accidents, explosions, impact fires, theft, malicious damage and many other causes.

What's covered?

- Hold-up Clause/ Hijack clause
- Goods Held in Trust
- Locked Boot Clause

Is it for me?

If your business operations rely heavily on shipping goods via road, you'll definitely want to have a goods-in-transit cover in place.

This is in case anything happens to your shipment during transit that can cause major setbacks to your business operations and hence harm margins.

What's NOT covered?

- Theft by Own Employee or Member of Insured's Family
- Theft from Unattended Vehicles
- Theft from Open Top or Open Sided vehicles
- Breakdown of refrigeration equipment.
- Detention, confiscation, nationalization, requisition or willful destruction by any government, public, municipal, local or customs authorities.
- Pressure waves caused by aircraft and other aerial devices travelling at sonic and supersonic speeds.
- Hazardous Goods
- Nuclear Energy Risks Exclusion Clause (NMA 1975)
- loss or damage due to lack of insufficient or Improper Packaging
- War, Civil War, Political Risks & Terrorism and Exclusion Clause
- Electronic Date Recognition Clause (EDRC)
- Cash, currency, bank notes or negotiable instruments.
- Loss or Damage to the insured items with Unexplainable circumstances
- Consequential loss of any kind.
